Reaching our neighbors with Christ's love so all lives are changed.

Join us for worship on Sunday, February 18th for the start of our new sermon series "In the Footsteps of the Savior", as we study some of the places Jesus walked and what happened there. This first week we learn about Jesus' ministry in Capernaum and how to follow Jesus when we doubt.

WEEK 6: SERVING UP PROMISE

Big Picture: We live in an increasingly secular culture. We need to begin our interactions with people asking questions more often than we do to understand where others are in life, what they're experiencing and feeling. Only as we become curious and enter into their stories, their hopes and their disappointments, will our message of God's promises and hope through Jesus have meaning.

Application & Reflection:

1. How can asking questions first instead of making assumptions help create positive interactions with people?
2. How can a deeper understanding of people's stories, hopes and disappointments help us to share a message of faith and hope?
3. Who do you know that could use to hear about God's promises for their life?

Prayer:

Faithful God, thank You for the promises and hope You have revealed through Your Word. Help us to approach people with curiosity instead of judgment. Empower us to enter into people's stories so we can best discern how to pour hope into their lives. Amen.
