Reaching our neighbors with Christ's love so all lives are changed.

Join us for worship next Sunday, July 12th for the 2nd week of our “Eat Your Veggies” sermon series where we’re studying wisdom God gave us in the Book of Proverbs, just as our parents taught us wisdom by asking us to eat our veggies. This 2nd week we focus on trusting God.

WEEK 1: SEEK WISDOM

Big Idea: The entire premise of Proverbs has to do with wisdom. It is considered to be written by one of the wisest people who ever lived, King Solomon. Proverbs is referred to as the Book of Wisdom. It is important to know what wisdom is and what it is not as well as the source of wisdom. Growing up, before we even knew anything about wisdom, our parents were the source of wisdom. Their wisdom was poured out to us through the sayings they often shared. God also gives us valuable lessons and wisdom if we are willing to seek it.

Application & Reflection:

1. What is some wisdom your parents shared with you?
2. What is some wisdom you have shared with your family or friends?
3. What wisdom may God be showing you in your life today?

Prayer: Lord God, thank You for the wise people You have put in our lives to help us live Godly lives. Help us to seek wisdom from those around us but especially from You. Guide us to not only seek that wisdom but also to share that wisdom with others. Amen.
