Sermon Series | Sundays in June

Join us for worship next Sunday, June 28th for the final week of our “What’s Next” sermon series. We’ll explore how to navigate a life that’s been disrupted by studying the example in the Bible of Moses, whose life was turned upside down when God revealed a new purpose for Moses’s life.

WHAT'S NEXT

WEEK 3: NOAH—NEW START

Big Idea: Whether you take Noah's story literally or metaphorically, Noah's life had some major disruptions. First he was told by God to build the ark. This set Noah apart from all those around him. Next, Noah, along with his immediate family, herded animals into the ark, sealed it up, and rode out the storm, which included 40 days of rain, another 150 days of flooding, 3 more months of waiting once they stopped moving, and 40+ days to actually open the ark. Then, finally, Noah and his family left the ark. Thru every aspect of Noah's experience - God was right there. As we look at this story, we need to ask - what does our Noah moment look like where we're offered a new start?

Application & Reflection:

1. Name a time in the past when God has given you a fresh start or "do-over"?
2. How has this time of sheltering in place caused you to explore new facets of living?
3. Where may God be showing up in your life today with a promise of a fresh start?

Prayer: Lord God, thank You for the story of Noah and reminding us how You offer us grace with a fresh start time and time again. Help us to lean on You when we need to change direction and look to You for a do-over when we don't get it right the first time. Amen.
